About me

Daniel Gebauer has been an attorney at Vavrovsky Heine Marth Rechtsanwälte since 2023 and is a permanent member of the real estate team specialising in national and international (real estate) transactions.

He advises clients on all legal issues in connection with the acquisition, sale, letting and management of real estate of all asset classes such as commercial, office and residential properties as well as hotels and retail parks.

In addition, he assists clients in construction law matters, corporate and company law aspects and financing issues associated with this field of advice.

In particular, Daniel has many years of experience in handling complex forward deal structures – both forward funding and forward purchase – and has recently assisted numerous national and international real estate funds in the implementation of such projects.

The Legal 500 names Daniel a “key lawyer” in the field of Real Estate and highlights his expertise in structuring and executing forward funding transactions and lease agreements for office and hospitality properties: “Daniel Gebauer is sought after for his skill in executing forward funding and lease agreements for office and hospitality properties.” Chambers Europe also ranked him in 2026 as an “Associate to Watch” in the Real Estate practice area: “Daniel Gebauer is very pleasant to work with and extremely diligent, which I appreciate very much. When I give him a task, I am 100% sure he will handle it well. I can rely on him.”
